We have investigated fully the construction and workings of this mill tion and dealings with organized and

and we are satisfied that this mill is one of the high grade mills on the market today, and has some features superior to any other mill we know of. We have also written a number of parties using this mill and find it is giving splendid satisfaction in every place it has been installed. We also find that this mill can be manufacturer's profit of practically 25 per cent when selling to jobbers direct.

We are satisfied if this company is organized and the mill can be advertised it will in time develop into a very large business. We are not in Eryan's account. and we are satisfied that this mill is unorganized labor, and his treatment of the high grade mills on the market today, and has some features chanics and laborers who know Mr.

under sheriff of Gove county and his deputy, Granville Rose. The officers were taking the prisoners to Hutchinson where they will serve a term in the state reformatory.

The three young men were from Philadelphia and were a sample of the invading army of young crooks which came out of the eastern cities last summer in search of better picking in the unprotected west. Like the greater number of their companions they found disappointment.

On September 21 the trio, S. A. Brown, Harry Haywood and Christian Montague, held up the station agent at Gove and relieved him of his purse which contained about thirty dollars.

LOOSE-WILES Vassar Chocolates

A dainty confection that is different. The delicious centers are flavored with real fruit-moist and creamy. The deep chocolate coating is rich and pure. The care in the making is reflected in the packing. Each chocolate is wrapped by itself in moisture-proof parchment paper. Then the whole package is triple sealed. You are losing an exquisite sweetmeat treat if you miss Vassar Chocolates. In half-pound, pound, two, three and five-pound boxes. Ask your candy man.

Vassar Supreme Chocolates

The only candy worth more than the popular Vassar Chocolates - and then it's only apparent to candy connoisseurs. If you are that critical, they will delight you. Two kinds of rich cream centers, soft and firm, in each package; wrapped in wax paper then gold and silver foil alternately. In pound boxes only.

Swiss Style Milk Chocolates

One of our latest confections - this dainty chocolate-made "Vassar way," makes a delightful combination and is given a new flavor. Swiss Style Milk Chocolate never tasted better. Every one has a separate wrapping-then packed in our triple-sealed boxes, half and pound sizes.
